FROM ANNA GRACE RUSSELL: My dear friends, I have the incredible opportunity to go back to Apaxco, Mexico where I spent 14 months as an AIMer. The Well, the college ministry associated with Sunset Church of Christ where I attend here in Lubbock, is arranging a week-long trip over spring break. During our time there we will be working with the church, doing service projects, visiting schools, followed by devotional times each night. My heart is so full at the thought of being able to visit with my coordinators as well as the church members and friends who were such major parts of my life there. In order for this trip to be possible I need to raise $2000. This will cover our travel needs as well as allow us to bless the community and the local church. The preferred way for me to receive donations is through Venmo. My username is @anna-grace13. If you would like to donate differently please get in touch with me and we can figure out what's best :) I am so beyond grateful for all of your generosity and prayers. While it will be a much shorter trip, I am so excited to serve this community again even for just a week!!
